

TECHNOIR

Technoir is a psychedelic soul/nu jazz duo based in Milan active since 2014.

The core members are :

Alexandros (aka Sound Activist) : guitars, beats, synths, vocals

Jennifer (aka Jennyfire) : vocals, fx, pads

Alexandros has Greek origins and was raised between Italy and the island of Kerkyra, while Jennifer was born in Italy by Nigerian and Ghanaian parents.

The duo's sound mixes jazz, electronica, soul and improvisation with a restless sonic research.

2016 lead to an intense live activity throughout Italy and Europe that let Technoir reach clubs like La Maroquinerie (Paris), Santeria Social Club (opening act for Romare), Magnolia and BIKO Club (Milan), Caffè Internazionale(Palermo).

During the last year they also started releasing a series of 3Ps (three song Eps published every three months) that will form their debut album NeMui, out on April 21st 2017 for the label Cane Nero Dischi.

NeMui is an acronym for New Ecosystem Musically Improved.

The whole album was produced by Alexandros (Sound Activist) in his bedroom studio.

NeMui has drawn the attention of AFROPUNK which premiered the project online, of the Italian musical magazine RUMORE, of the music blog Dance Like Shaquille O'Neal and their single "Techtube" was featured in the radio broadcast Mono Jazz airing on Gilles Peterson's Worldwide FM.

Currently the duo is experimenting with their live set touring with two different lineups, the first is more electronic oriented and features Alexandros and Jennifer only, the second is a more jazzy/open full band with added instruments like drums, saxophone and piano.
